Re: Strangulation/Battery Case #09-16742

At about 6:48 am on 12/30/09, Neenah Police responded to a disturbance call in the 400 block of Sherry Street. The suspect was identified as Andre Lamont Carroll, who is described below. Mr. Carroll is alleged to have physically attacked his 20-year-old girlfriend while she was in the shower. The victim reported that she was punched, kicked, and strangled during the assault. The victim had visible injuries and later sought medical treatment. She was able to escape her attacker and run to a neighbor's for help. Police responded and determined that Mr. Carroll had already fled the scene in a green 2001 Ford Explorer Expedition with a plate of 111PWD.

The suspect is also known to use the name Eric Johnson.

Neenah Police have been diligent but unsuccessful in locating Mr. Carroll. He has family in Chicago and in the Fox Valley. If anyone has any knowledge of this subject's whereabouts, please contact the Neenah Police Department at (920)886-6000.

This subject has an extensive criminal history and warrants caution. Citizens should not approach Mr. Carroll but should contact their local Law Enforcement agency immediately if they see him. If the subject is in a vehicle, citizens should record the plate number, direction of travel, and description of the vehicle and report it to law enforcement.

Violent offenders are often located due to citizen information and awareness. The Neenah Police Department appreciates any assistance from the public.
