Hope you get great comments in 2017. Andy Safranski: Neenah resident.
1/4/2017 21:48		Traffic Stop	Not Arrested	N/A	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	I was pulled over by Officer Douglas tonight because of expired registration on my vehicle. He was very kind and professional. I was impressed (and almost scared I did something horribly wrong) that 2 officers approached my vehicle and when Officer Douglas talked to me he stood behind my door, which I assumed was to protect himself. I was happy to think that the NPD seems to be training officers how to be safer when approaching people. Also, allowing for 2 to ride in a vehicle in case something were to happen is great in my opinion. I have found all of my interactions with the Neenah Police to be positive, although this was my first traffic stop. I have had to come in to the station for a different matter last year and that officer was also very kind. He took time to listen to understand the situation. I appreciated his help. My kids and I have been stopped by the community service officers a few different times over the years. They were always friendly and my kids were very excited to talk with them and get stickers. In addition to the community officers, our family has appreciated the community events the NPD are a part of (like touch a truck). I feel you are trying to set up a good relationship with the community. My kids aren't afraid of police and I am happy for that. The other time we dealt with NPD is when 2 officers came to our house 4 years ago and informed my husband that his father had passed away out of town. Obviously we were in shock but appreciated the officers asking if there was anything they could do for us and taking the time to talk with us. I see a lot of negative comments online about the NPD but I think in any community there will be people who dislike police and authority just because. I feel badly that it seems like police everywhere need to prove themselves to everyone that they are doing good all of the time. You are all under the microscope while risking your lives for us. Thank you. I'm not a fan of getting pulled over, but since I did I am glad to have been treated with respect. Keep up the great work!

1/6/2017 19:51	17-000260	Civil Matter	Not Arrested	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	I really can't express enough appreciation for Officer Mohr. I came to the police station due to some conflict in regards to a custody situation. The matter could have been dealt with in a matter of minutes, administratively, and I might have been on my way. Officer Mohr went above and beyond. He listened to the issues, and allowed me to leave the station with so much more than I had anticipated. I'd been having some trouble with my 12 year old son for a few weeks; things at home had been very tense and emotional. Officer Mohr took the time to speak to my 12 year old one on one, and the difference was immediate. I'm not sure if it was the uniform, the male figure or the compassion Officer Mohr expressed, but my son actually listened. He took in what was said, and although he and I continue to have things to work on, Officer Mohr pointed us both in the same direction for the first time in weeks. I cried and hugged him and really, won't ever forget the kindness this stranger extended during one of the most difficult times in my life. Thank you, one hundred times, thank you.

I have many police family members and I know how hard it can be. Thank you for all that you do. I know when I called for help and in tears or shaking you guys were very understanding nice and did what was asked of you. And in my first time of ever getting pulled over you were still nice and forgiving and gave me a warning. God bless you all. Be safe please. Thank you :)

After the event several people commented to me how they enjoyed the presentation and that it was very informative. They liked the interaction and variety throughout the event with the short video clips and Q&A. Thanks again for your support, this event was well received.
