10/5/2020 22:12	20-014133	Traffic Stop	Not Arrested	Neutral	Satisfied	Satisfied	Satisfied	Neutral	I feel like I should not have been pulled over for speeding going 47 in a 45 where the speed limit reduces to 30. I drive the road everyday and always coast down to the speed limit. I am going the reduced speed by the time I get to the 30 mile an hour sign. I just feel like pulling me over when I was within reason is harrassment. Other than that everything went well and I understand why they are trying to slow people down right there. I feel that those two soeed limit signs coming into neenah are too close together and contradict eachother. Is that because its 45 in the town? The city should put a reduced speed limit ahead sign. There is literally a 45mph sign and a 30 immediately after. Change the 45 to a reduced speed ahead and problem solved. Anyway that is just my 2 cents. I appreciate your time. Thank you for your services NPD. Let's all keep going in the right direction together

I was a bit shaken up since I hadn't been pulled over in a very long time. He was patient with me while I tried to figure out how to pull up my insurance card on my phone. I really appreciated that. I thanked him for his service. He was super understanding. Thank you officer!

Officer Peterson gave me an opportunity, trusted me, and had a hold on the reality of the times we are currently in. My utmost respect and gratitude for him as an officer of the law, and as a human being. Thank you!

I had no clue my taillights were out(due to the knob being turned), and I'm sure he rarely hears, "thank you for pulling me over," he was at the right place at the right time! I wouldn't have known for who knows how long, & he may have prevented a future unnessesary accident! Elizabeth Francis

Officer actually listened to what I said and showed some compassion for our situation. I have not had a better interaction with a police officer ever in my life. I would've never came on here and filled out the survey, I just usually don't do things like this, but the officer was absolutely amazing and I felt that I needed to fill out the survey to let you know. Thank you again.
