1/5/2021 15:09	20-017054	Traffic Stop	Not Arrested	Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Very Satisfied	Neutral	The officer has had incidents with me in the past. I made some life changes three years ago so I haven't had much contact with NPD. I was impressed that the officer, who I believe recognized me, did not give me a hard time. However, I'm sure it was apparent that I'm not living the same lifestyle that I once was at that time. I will say that there have been times in the past that I've felt very degraded by NPD and I now advocate for mothers who suffer from the disease of addiction and/or mental health issues along with women who need help making changes from a criminal thinking pattern. I personally would love to see the officers in our great city understand these diseases/illnesses so that we can help people take the next steps toward recovery instead of just viewing them as a burden and dehumanizing them-which is so easy to do when they are not understood. After all sometimes officers are the only stable people who have contact with these individuals and it is important that it becomes a positive intervention even when it results in incarceration.

Nearly all my contacts with Neenah PD (recurrent due to my adult son's mental illness and addiction) have been notable for the courtesy, professionalism and empathy shown by officers. Officer Benoit went above and beyond in dealing with a potentially serious situation, and in not making me feel like a nuisance. He communicated with 3rd parties on my behalf, advised them to cease efforts to involve/harass me in an attempt to get my son's drug debt paid, and even went above and beyond in getting my stolen property returned. As a 65 year old woman living alone, this officer's intervention made me feel safe again.

I have had many presentations of this type in my 23 year teaching career, and this was at or near the top. Officer Stu was personable and funny, and he really knew how to speak to the students at their level. His information was relevant and useful to the students. I would recommend his presentation to any Neenah teachers and/or students. It was outstanding!

We requested two groups as we are trying to not mix children and he was happy to accommodate. The book he read was a bit long for the kids but they did great! He kept drawing them back. The prop of Paddington was great. Helps the kids focus. If the story is long just "tell it from the pictures" and keep it moving. The children were so excited to have him visit. They asked great questions and he answered them all well. Good job! Stop by every month! We always have a book you can read.

3/24/2021 7:34	2J808BLJ2F	Civil Matter	Not Arrested	Neutral	Very Unsatisfied	Very Unsatisfied	Very Unsatisfied	Satisfied	Office Fosler was rude and unprofessional regarding this dog waste incident. He stated to me his wife "saw me kick snow" on my dog's waste. When I attempted to explain I forgot a bag and circled back to pick it up after the walk he rudely interrupted me and handed me the citation. The issues I have with this interaction: 1) He stated his wife saw me, how am I supposed to tell an officer his wife didn't have the whole story or she was wrong, that's unprofessional on his part. 2) He interrupted me, which is both rude and unprofessional. 3) The fact he's a neighbor and didn't even bother to politely ask or alert me to the issue AND he levied the maximum citation disappoints me. I would expect a neighbor, especially someone employed by the city where I pay taxes to be neighborly and instead of coming to the door with a written up citation, come to the door to provide a warning and try to listen to the situation. I expect more from the NPD when it comes to using common sense and being judicious when handing out a $134 citation for dog waste. He could've just as easily walked down the street, given me a heads up, and learned I forgot a bag but I always circle back to pick up any waste when I do forget one (which doesn't happen often).

It was early in the morning (~1:30am) when I pulled over in the Walgreen parking lot. Lieutenant Goetz was in the area and turned his lights on to see what the commotion was about (as I realize it is very odd to be in a parking lot that late at night). He handled the situation well; identified that my friend definitely had overconsumed and he took the proper precautions to make sure that I was sober prior to allowing us to leave. I appreciated his respect, professionalism, and ability to conduct his questioning in a way that wasn't overly intimidating. Thank you for continuing to make our community a safer place to live.
