RE: Neenah Police Department - Accredited

The Governing Board of the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Accreditation Group (WILEAG) has announced that the Neenah Police Department has achieved the status of being an accredited law enforcement agency.

Accreditation is a process whereby an agency is evaluated on the existence of and its compliance with prescribed professional standards. The Neenah Police Department was found to be in compliance of all 210 applicable standards and there were no standards found not in compliance.

There are over 500 municipal police departments in the State of Wisconsin, and only 36 are accredited. Chief Aaron Olson is very proud of all 52 full time members of the Neenah Police Department along with the part time staff. Chief Olson would like to recognize the Neenah Police Department's Accreditation Team for their excellent work: Officer Rob Ross-Accreditation Manager and Lieutenant Kathy Voelker-Assistant Accreditation Manager.

The findings of the independent review and achievement of accredited status provides a well-deserved sense of professionalism and pride for the Neenah Police Department personnel and the community we serve. In addition, the community gains a sense of security in the knowledge that their police department is well managed and utilizes the best police practices in the State of Wisconsin.
