RE: Shooting Incident

Officers from the Neenah Police Department responded to a report of a shooting in the 300 block of Stanley Court. Just before 4:00 p.m., a report was called in of a gunshot in a parking lot and that someone had been injured. The individuals involved have been identified, one of which was a juvenile who had a non-life threatening self-inflicted injury. It appears the injury was caused by the negligent discharge of the firearm.

The Neenah Police Department will continue to investigate this report, but is certain this was an isolated incident and there is no concern for public safety regarding this incident.
