Just turned &amp; kind of observed that this kids picnic table was NOT scrapped correctly. &amp; was able to manage to stop safely with his lights on grabbed part of the picnic table that fell off into the furthest right lane. I thought it was tightly scrapped down. I was wrong. Officer did everything right like heâ€™s supposed to do. &amp; was on his way to a call 6:52pm Thursday July 21 &amp; took his time out of the day to help me Re-Strap The picnic back down for me. &amp; was helpful the entire time. &amp; helped me safely back on the road. I had Encounterâ€™s with cops before &amp; idk why, but Jason really stuck out! Probably the nicest police officer Iâ€™ve ever encountered. &amp; he honestly came off really calm &amp; honestly felt â€œprotectedâ€ on the side of this busy freeway bridge before round about &amp; on &amp; off ramps. &amp; really watched other vehicles while I slowly struggle with the ratchetâ€™s. Normally I wouldnâ€™t type out a serve, specially for a cop. NO offense. But really good feeling knowing thereâ€™s good ones out there! I was so comfortable with officer I almost didnâ€™t want want to say goodbye. Just trying to explain in detail what I grasp. &amp; hope this review could go to some good use. But by far Iâ€™ll gladly actually drive through Neenah

The only issue was that no street barricades were provided even after I electronically submitted the Permit Application and even spoke with Gerry Kaiser to confirm that the barricades would be delivered to the necessary location at the appointed time. But Officer Benoit was very informative and provided great advice for our Bridgewood Community. Thank you, Officer Benoit.

I'm not sure the name of the other officer on the call but he escalated the situation by bringing up a concern about one of his relatives unrelated to what I called about. That concern escalated my daughter. In the future, it would have been best if he ran that situation by me first before blindsiding me and my 17 year old daughter. Overall, the Neenah Police is excellent and we are grateful for all the help. Thank you!
