

For Immediate Release:

The City of Neenah has declared a SNOW EMERGENCY effective from 12:00 AM on Sunday, March 15, 2026, to Noon on Friday, March 20, 2026. Mayor Jane Lang issued a Snow Emergency Proclamation today.

During this snow emergency, no parking will be allowed on City streets within the City of Neenah.

This action will allow Public Works personnel to clear snow and allow for movement of Emergency Vehicles. Any vehicle illegally parked or hampering snow removal operations will be ticketed and could be towed at the owner's expense.

A press release will be issued if the snow emergency is lifted sooner than the listed end date.
